STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Experience of the working of the Bengal Tanks Improvement Act, 1939, shows that it is almost impossible to recover water rates for tanks improved under the Act, on a voluntary basis, as provided under section 16(2) of the Act and that it is essential that water rates should be made compulsory in order that full benefit might arise out of the improvement of irrigation tanks which has been taken up on a large scale in areas affected by drought. It has also been found necessary to make provisions for (1) empowering the Collector to modify the period of possession subject to the maximum period of twenty years in order that the cost with interest incurred by the authorised person may be realised within such period, (2) taking possession of any land adjoining a derelict tank that may be considered necessary for the purpose of carrying out improvements in the tank, (3) making only agricultural lands assessable to fees under the Act and (4) barring out the accrual of occupancy rights on the lands adjoining a derelict tank or its banks that may be leased out by the authorised person under section 18. The Bill has been framed with these objects in view.

(b) as far as can expediently be ascertained the rent paid to other landlords for non-agricultural lands in the vicinity with similar advantages or of a similar description;

(c) the market value of the land comprised in the tenancy and the rent which would be payable if the rate were fixed at not more than four per centum of such market value;

Limitation of right to enhancement.

23. When the rent of a tenancy specified in any of the sections 5, 6, 9 or 10 has been enhanced by the Court or in pursuance of the conditions of a contract, it shall not be further enhanced by the Court during the fifteen years next following the date on which it has been last so enhanced and for the purposes of this section if an order of gradual enhancement of such rent has been made by a Court in accordance with the provisions of section 22, the full rent fixed by such order shall be deemed to have come into effect from the date of such order.

Reduction of rents.

24. The rent of a non-agricultural tenant holding a tenancy specified in any of the sections 5 to 12 may be reduced by the Court if the Court considers that the rate of rent payable by the tenant is unfair and inequitable, and in determining what rent is fair and equitable under this section the Court shall have regard to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 21.

CHAPTER VI.

Other incidents of tenancies held by non-agricultural tenants.

Manner of use of tenancies

25. 26. A non-agricultural tenant holding a permanent tenancy specified in section 5, or section 6 shall be entitled—

28. The provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 and of any other law for the time being in force, in so far as they may be applicable and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act shall continue to apply to all tenancies to which the provisions of this Act apply. IV of 1882.

CHAPTER VII.

Miscellaneous.

Act not to apply to leases for forest, fishery and mineral rights.

29. Nothing in this Act shall apply to any lease in respect of any forest-rights or rights over fishery or rights to minerals in any non-agricultural land.

Certain contracts not to affect the provisions of the Act.

30. Nothing in any contract between a landlord and a tenant made after the commencement of this Act shall take away or limit the rights of such tenant as provided for by this Act, and any contract which is made in contravention of the provisions of this section or which is inconsistent with, or purports to alter the effect of, any of the provisions of this Act, shall, to the extent of such contraventions or inconsistency or to the extent it purports to alter such effect, be void and without effect.

The Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Bill, 1944.

(Clauses 31—33.)

Jurisdiction in proceedings under this Act.

31. When under this Act a Court is authorized to make an order on the application of a landlord or a tenant, the application shall be made to the Civil Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit for possession of the non-agricultural land comprised in the tenancy in connection with which the application is brought.

Application.

32. The provisions of this Act shall have effect in respect of all suits or proceedings including proceedings in execution for ejectment of a non-agricultural tenant which are pending at the date of commencement of this Act.

Rules.

33. (1) The Provincial Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the manner in which the landlord or the tenant may apply to the Court under sub-section (2) of section 7 ;

(b) the forms of the notices referred to in sections 14 and 15, the manner of service of such notices and the amount of the process fees referred to in the said section ;

(c) the manner in which the landlord's fees referred to in section 15 shall be transmitted to the landlord, the costs of transmission of such fees and the manner of payment of the landlord's fees and cost of transmission under sub-section (12) of that section ; and

(d) the determination of a fair and equitable rent referred to in sub-section (3) of section 21.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Government have considered the Report of the Non-Agricultural Land Enquiry Committee and are of the opinion that notwithstanding the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, the non-agricultural tenants who hold lands under a lease for residential, business, manufacturing or other purposes are in need of better security. It is obvious, however, that the degree of protection cannot be the same for all classes of tenants and it has been considered necessary to make a distinction between tenancies which are—

(1) of unknown origin or which originated from before the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 ;

(2) held under a written lease for a specified period of not less than twelve years ;

(3) held under a written lease but without specification of any period or without a written lease but originating from after the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, in either case the period of possession not being less than twelve years ;

(4) held under a written lease or otherwise for a period of more than one year but less than twelve years.

It is proposed to confer permanent, heritable and transferable rights on all tenants coming under (1). Lessees under (2) should have a right of renewal on fair and equitable terms, but in case the lessor has allowed a pucca structure to be constructed on the land, the tenant should have the status of a permanent lessee irrespective of the period of occupation. Lessees under (3) should have a permanent heritable right. All holdings coming under (2) and (3) should be transferable on payment of a landlords' transfer fee. A perversion of user or a breach of a condition of the contract should be the only grounds on which a tenant under (1), (2) and (3) can be evicted. In case of tenants under (4) provision has been made for payment of compensation under certain circumstances in case of eviction.

The Bill has been drafted to provide for these protective rights and also to confer other incidental but necessary rights on the non-agricultural tenants of the different classes.

A BILL

to extend the operation of the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, to agricultural land in Bengal.

WHEREAS the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, purported to give better rights to women in respect of property in general; XVIII of 1937.

AND WHEREAS it has now been established that the said Act does not operate to give women better rights in respect of agricultural land;

AND WHEREAS many transactions have already taken place in Bengal on the basis that women had acquired better rights under the said Act in respect of agricultural land as well as other kinds of property;

AND WHEREAS it is therefore expedient to extend the operation of the said Act to agricultural land in Bengal with retrospective effect, but with certain savings, for the purpose of giving women better rights under the said Act in respect of agricultural land in Bengal as well as for validating the transactions referred to above and for other purposes;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Women's Rights to Property (Bengal Agricultural Land) Act, 1944.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

Saving.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 417, the Provincial Government may direct the Public Prosecutor to present an appeal to the High Court from any order of acquittal passed by the High Court in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction, and such appeal may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 418, or section 423, sub-section (2), or in the Letters Patent of any High Court, but subject to the restrictions imposed by clause (b) and clause (c) of sub-section (1) of this section on an appeal against a conviction, lie on a matter of fact as well as a matter of law.

(3) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in any Act or Regulation, an appeal under this section shall be heard by a Division Court of the High Court composed of not less than two judges, being judges other than the judge or judges by whom the original trial was held; and if the constitution of such a Division Court is impracticable, the High Court shall report the circumstances to the Provincial Government which shall take action

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Federal Court has held that the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937 (XVIII of 1937) is ultra vires in so far as it relates to agricultural lands in the Governors' Provinces. In view of this it is considered necessary that legislation should be undertaken so as to extend the provisions of the Act to agricultural lands in this Province with retrospective effect in order to give widows the full measure of the benefit which the framers of the Act contemplated and to protect transactions already entered into on the faith of the Act with certain savings.

The Bill has been framed with these objects in view.
